Les dix-neuf intervenants représentent un éventail de gens intéressés – musulmans (7) et non musulmans, femmes (4) et hommes (15), des universitaires (10) et des politiciens (5). Parmi les intervenants, on retrouve des « grands » spécialistes – tels Alexandre K. Bennigsen, Élisabeth W. Fernea, Fazlur Rahman, John Waterbury. Malgré cela, le livre est accessible aux non spécialistes car le langage utilisé est simple et n'est pas alourdi par tous les accoutrements d'un texte savant.

Cet ouvrage avec ses informations solides et ses interprétations équilibrées, permettra au lecteur relativement instruit des questions islamiques, de parfaire ses connaissances en ce domaine.
