2019 has been a time of growth and some change for The Trumpeter. Over the course of the year, we reconstituted our editorial advisory board, which had gone defunct at some point before I took up the editorship of the journal. I am proud to report that the new editorial advisory board is gender-balanced, and comprised of twenty-two academics and professionals from a very wide variety of disciplinary, linguistic, and national backgrounds. The full list can be found under “About > Editorial Team” on The Trumpeter’s website, but for your convenience I reproduce it here:

Additionally, Nancy Holmes (Creative Writing, University of British Columbia Okanagan, Canada) joined our editorial team as a poetry editor alongside Kelly Shepherd, who's worked in this capacity since 2013. Sometimes it's better to have two pairs of eyes on a submission than one, and we're very happy to have Nancy on board with The Trumpeter!

The 2019 issue then follows with two research articles, four narratives, poems by five poets, two book reviews, and one critical review of another poem. I hope you will find these contributions stimulating and inspiring, both intellectually, emotionally, spiritually, and practically.
