VIRALLY, Michel, L'Organisation mondiale, A. Colin (Coll. U), 389p. + bibliographie et index.

La description de la structure et des fonctions de l'Organisation mondiale dans son ensemble, est nécessaire pour comprendre les sociétés politiques contemporaines. C'est un phénomène capital dont la croissance irréversible depuis cinquante ans a transformé la nature des rapports internationaux.

L'auteur insiste sur le cœur politique de l'Organisation mondiale, l'ONU, la décrit dans ses rapports avec les autres parties du système et met en évidence le jeu des facteurs d'autonomie et de dépendance qui opèrent en elle et sur elle.

Sylvie CARTIGNY,
secrétaire à la rédaction.
