Archives

We had planned to publish in this issue of Acadiensis an article on the Archives Acadiennes at the Université de Moncton, but were informed by the Librarian, M. Ronald LeBlanc, that he had already published a brief description of the holdings of the Archives in the Atlantic Provinces Library Association Bulletin for March, 1971. Next year we hope to serialize an inventory of the holdings of the Public Archives of Nova Scotia.

Canadian Historical Association/ Société historique du Canada

The fifty-first annual meeting of the Canadian Historical Association will be held this year at McGill University, Montreal from June 5th to 9th. Several sessions of the Association will deal with Atlantic Provinces history and of particular relevance should be the Colloquium on Maritime Provinces History, chaired by J. M. S. Careless, on June 7th and two Symposiums on Louisbourg, chaired by C. J. Jaenen and B. C. Bickerton, on June 8th. For further information contact the Secretary, Canadian Historical Association, 395 Wellington Street, Ottawa, Ontario, CANADA.

Programme for Loyalist Studies

The Canadian Committee of the international Programme for Loyalist Studies and Publications based at the University of New Brunswick, Fredericton is now completing the first stage of the Programme: the preparation of a bibliography of all Loyalist source material and secondary works pertaining to Canada. The bibliography will be published in a forthcoming number of the Proceedings of the American Antiquarian Society. However, the search continues for obscure Loyalist material, especially that which is in private hands. Anyone with information is invited to contact Mrs. Jo-Ann Fellows, Loyalist Studies Programme, University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, New Brunswick.
