In memoriam

Alexander Edward Spalding (1923-2002)

Volume 26, numéro 2, 2002

Populations et migrations
Populations and Migrations

URI : <https://id.erudit.org/iderudit/007661ar>

DOI : <https://doi.org/10.7202/007661ar>

Aller au sommaire du numéro

Éditeur(s)

Association Inuksiutiit Katimajit Inc.

ISSN

0701-1008 (imprimé)

1708-5268 (numérique)

Découvrir la revue

Citer ce document

(2002). In memoriam: Alexander Edward Spalding (1923-2002).

Études/Inuit/Studies, 26(2), 242–242. <https://doi.org/10.7202/007661ar>

IN MEMORIAM

Alexander Edward Spalding

(1923-2002)

On January 30, 2002, Alexander (Alex) Edward Spalding passed away at the Toronto General Hospital, at the age of 78. Alex Spalding was a former Hudson's Bay Company Post manager, government education administrator, linguist, writer and poet. He was the author of several Inuktitut grammars and a recently published Inuktitut dictionary. He also published a memoir called Aivilik Adventure about his years in the North, along with several studies and poems based on Inuit myths relayed to him by his friend and fellow linguist, Thomas Kusugaq.