REPORT OF THE LOCAL HISTORY SECTION

Mr. Bond reported on behalf of Mr. G. F. G. Stanley, chairman.

To Council, Canadian Historical Association,

On June 11, a group of Provincial chairmen met to consider nominations for awards for local history. The following are respectfully submitted :

Category B (historical societies) : La Société Historique de Boucherville (Que.) for its action in promoting an understanding of the local history of the Boucherville region and the sponsoring of the edition of Pierre Boucher's Histoire Véroitable et Naturelle . . .

Category D (I) (Scholarly history) : Julienne Barnard, for her work Les Mémoires Chapais, the third volume of which appeared in 1964.

Category D (II) (Popular history) : S. A. Pain, The Way North, a work on the history of the development of northern Ontario.

Category G (individuals) : Mr. George T. Bates, of Halifax, N.S. Surveyor and local historian, he has been active with the Nova Scotia Historical Society; his series of fifteen large detailed maps of the province of Nova Scotia represent the gathering together and publishing of an important mass of historical information on the province.

Mr. Isaac Clarkson, of Elkhorn, Man., whose collection of old automotive vehicles, agricultural and domestic machinery, assembled, as a result of his endeavours, through the incorporation of the Manitoba Automobile Museum Foundation of Elkhorn has been exposed to public view.

Miss Marie-Claire Daveluy, whose work Jeanne Mance and her bibliographical and documentary researches published in La Revue d'histoire de l'Amérique française have contributed greatly to an understanding of the origins of Montreal.

Category H. (organizations) : Boy Scouts of Canada, Southern Alberta Region for their work in making the Whoop-up Trail in southern Alberta.

On the motion of Mr. P. G. Cornell, seconded by Mr. L. H. Thomas, the meeting adopted the report.
