LES RELATIONS INDUSTRIELLES

A sa réunion annuelle tenue à Québec, le 11 septembre 1953, l'Association du Barreau Canadien a adopté les résolutions suivantes concernant les Relations industrielles.

1.—The Canadian Bar Association recommends that legislation be enacted by the Parliament of Canada and by the respective Provincial Legislatures to provide that a lawful strike or lockout may not be put into effect until after 48 hours written notice specifying the time after which such strike or lockout will commence, has been given.

2.—The Canadian Bar Association recommends that legislation be enacted by the Parliament of Canada and by the respective Provincial Legislatures to provide that trade unions shall be legal entities and the Industrial Relations Section should consider further and report upon the manner in which their rights and responsibilities may be defined and made effective.

3.—The Canadian Bar Association recommends that Legislation be enacted by the Parliament of Canada and by the respective Provincial Legislatures to enable the Governor in Council or the appropriate Lieutenant-Governor in Council to withdraw the rights of strike and lockout and to submit to further compulsory binding arbitration in the case of any specific labour dispute where such authority considers that the health or safety of the general public would be placed in jeopardy.

4.—The Canadian Bar Association recommends that Legislation be enacted by the Parliament of Canada and by the respective Provincial Legislatures to provide that picketing in support of a sympathetic or jurisdictional strike shall be unlawful and prohibited.

5.—The Canadian Bar Association recommends that Legislation be enacted by the Parliament of Canada to provide that the only types of industry under federal jurisdiction for the purposes of labour relations should be those listed in Section 91 of the B.N.A. Act and that undertakings declared to be for the general benefit of Canada should, for the purpose of wages, working conditions and industrial relations, be under provincial jurisdiction unless the declaration specifically provides otherwise.
