Creative Writing @ UNB

The University of New Brunswick's Creative Writing Program is one of the oldest and most prestigious in Canada.

The "Ice House" where writers have been meeting for over fifty years.

UNB offers a MA program and a new PhD program in Creative Writing, and a wide range of undergraduate courses focusing on fiction, poetry, drama, and screen writing.

Graduate students can join the editorial boards of The Fiddlehead, one of the oldest literary journals in Canada, and QWERTY, our graduate student journal.

FREDERICTON

We offer small class sizes and faculty who work closely with students. Home to some of the best scholars in Canada, the department supports two internationally renowned journals, The Fiddlehead and Studies in Canadian Literature. Our students are extraordinarily successful in obtaining master's and doctoral SSHRC awards and after graduation have, amongst other accomplishments, published books and earned university positions.
