A Word with an Edge

UCHECHUKWU PETER UMEZURIKE

I fear anything with a point a blunt knife
dangling
on the countertop
nail on floor
needle on sofa
a stray pen in my bed
toys on the stair
broken
their jaws open
the eyes of my lover
when she bristles
cheeks taut
things with an edge
taken for granted —
but all these
dim in my mind
once one of them sights me at a café
and flings a word
with teeth
at my skin.
