DRENGSON, Alan (1934-2022)

With gratitude for a life consciously lived, we witnessed Alan's passage to another realm on March 6, 2022. He was a philosopher, a mountain climber, a lover of all things Norwegian, but above all, he was a dedicated father. We will laugh at his antics and stories for years to come. Alan dreamed large. He was a founder of the Environmental Studies program at the University of Victoria, British Columbia, Canada, the founder of the Ecoforestry Institute, and started two journals: the Trumpeter: Journal of Ecosophy and Ecoforestry. He taught at the University of Victoria for nearly fifty years, influencing countless students of philosophy and environmental studies. Alan is survived by his wife, Victoria Stevens, his 3 daughters, Alice (Mike), Jane (John), and Anna, his grandson, Finnegan, and his niece, Michelle Drengson. A memorial was held at Goward House on May 14, 2022 at 3:30 pm. In lieu of flowers, donations were sent to the Ecoforestry Institute Society and Habitat Acquisition Trust.
