

NOTES AND COMMENTS/NOTES ET COMMENTAIRES

* * * * *

Articles appearing in this journal are indexed and abstracted in URBAN CANADA/CANADA URBAIN; GEO ABSTRACTS; HISTORICAL ABSTRACTS; and AMERICA: HISTORY AND LIFE.

.

CONTRIBUTORS

SUSAN BUGGEY is Head, Construction History Section, Research Division, Parks Canada, Ottawa.

MICHAEL NEWTON is an historical researcher with the Heritage Division of the National Capital Commission, Ottawa. He is the author of Lower Town Ottawa, Vol. 1: 1826-1854, N.C.C. Manuscript Report #104 (Ottawa, 1979).

DAVID HANNA is a Ph.D. candidate at McGill University. His article is derived from his M.A. thesis, University of Toronto.

VICTOR A. KONRAD is currently Acting Director of the Canadian-American Center, University of Maine, Orono and Assistant Professor of Anthropology (Geography). He received his doctorate from McMaster University. Research interests include pre-historical man-land relationships, material culture transfer and persistence, and historical appreciation.

S. MARTIN TAYLOR is Associate Professor of Geography at McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario. His doctorate is from the University of British Columbia. Research interests include environmental perception, community attitudes to urban environmental problems and consumer spatial behaviour.

PAUL ADOLPHUS BATOR completed his doctoral thesis at the University of Toronto in 1979. He is now teaching part-time at the University of Toronto's School of Continuing Studies.

.

COVER PHOTOGRAPH

Inauguration of the Sebastopol Monument, St. Paul's Cemetery, Halifax, 17 July 1860. Photo reproduced courtesy of the Nova Scotia Museum.

.