The Narrows

Stephen Lefebure

What if nature chose to imitate
Your unconscious mind, and you could sense
Outside yourself what ought to be unreal?
It would be as if the world could state
In words, though inarticulate, immense
Misery our dreams attempt to heal.
It would be like when you concentrate
On what you have to say, but more intense
Meanings you intended to conceal
Surface and express the intimate
Content underneath your old pretense.
It would show in stone what dreamers feel.
